Well-Dressed Woman Tried Suicide in the Street.

Reason Known for Her Act, and She May Not Recover.

A police of the Seventeenth Precinct, Bronx, reported this morning that at 11:30 last night a young woman was found on the sidewalk on Liberty Avenue, Bronx street.

A woman, who was very pretty and well dressed, seemed to be suffering from the effects of arsenical poison. She was taken in an ambulance to St. Mary's Hospital, where she lived sufficiently to say that her name was Elizabeth Burdett, twenty-four years old, of 110, Elizabeth Street, Bronx, Bronx, Bronx.

She said she had taken rat poison,

would give no reason for her act,

and the hospital people think that the chances against her recovery are small.
